Become a certified transport manager

If you want to pursue a career in transport, a recognised qualification then you should consider a Certificate of Professional Competence (CPC) in Transport. This certificate, which is awarded by the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport, qualifies you as a Transport Manager and also as a responsible person in charge of a bus or coach.

A CPC is also extremely beneficial for employment opportunities, career advancement or you want to up-skill. You may also be entitled to your Local Employment Offices. Subjects covered in the course include: managing a transport business; employment and health and safety legislation; contract law and insurance; and the role of the Transport Manager in the industry.

Approved CPC courses are run at weekends by Tony through the CPC exam by using his own specially developed materials and his unique dynamic delivery style.

Tony is currently starting his new course in the town of Hebrington Road, Malwa on Saturday, November 1st. Kilmurry Lodge Hotel, Limerick on Sunday, November 8th; County Arms Hotel, Birr on Sunday, November 16th; and on Saturday, November 22nd.
